

August 2008 – Re-awarded CSCS Gold Standard Certificate

To further Drainology's Health and Safety at Work credentials, we are pleased to announce that the company has been re-awarded the 'CSCS Gold Standard Certificate of Commitment'.

This award recognises Drainology's continued commitment to the furtherance of competence and health and safety in the workplace.

Together with our Construction Skills and CHAS accreditations, this certificate demonstrates Drainology's continued dedication to Health and Safety in the Workplace, ensuring that the work we carry out is safe for both our staff and customers alike.
